Overview

Quinta Fiol Piedra is a grand villa with beautiful stone facades that sets the tone early as you approach the property from a sweeping driveway. The kitchen suite comprises of a utility room and large kitchen, the latter of which has doors to two sides of the room leading to the surrounding exterior terraces. The breakfast area is a great place to start your day and comes with an aluminium and glass topped table with brightly coloured orange chairs. Back into the hall, a set of stairs lead up the first floor. On the left is a further twin bedroom with an en suite shower room, where double doors lead out onto the shared terrace.
