

Villa De Muro

Region: Costa Blanca Sleeps: 4

Overview

Birds chirp, butterflies dance around you, and mediteranean trees brush past you as you walk up the gravel path in to Villa De Muros impeccable lawned garden. Designed to attract the local wildlife as well as holiday makers, this simple, small villa is nonetheless bursting with style and character.

Recently refurbished, the entrance is through two french windows in to the high-ceilinged lounge, where a merry little fire can be curle dup next to on colourful couches. The kitchen is open plan in to the dining area, and is fully equipped.

The two bedrooms are also spacious and each has its own tiled bathroom, one ensuite to the master and one just down the corridor from the twin.

You can also dine al fresco on a shaded veranda with stone pillars, just around the corner from the glittering roman styled pool. This is a true little slice of paradise for you and your friends/family.

Location & Local Information

Villa De Muro is situated closest to two of Spain's most wonderful holiday towns (particularly, it is a short 15 minute drive away), and we highly recommend you visit one or both during your stay. Javea and Moraira are nestled between mountains and the sea, the jewels of the ever popular Costa Blanca's crown. However they haven't sold out to the tourism boom and as a result their charming waterfronts, parks and beaches are rarely crowded.

There is a huge range of local shops and markets along with supermarkets for more basic necessities, and a huge range of international cuisine if you fancy something different. Most exciting is the traditional Moraira morning fish market situated in the town's marina, where that morning's catch attracts eager crowds of visitors and locals.

Well serviced by a huge variety of restaurants, supermarkets, bars and shops and a short drive from golf, theme parks, water parks, safari parks and many other things to do, both of these towns know what it takes to keep a holiday maker happy or entertained.

Activities for adults include art galleries, local shopping, Jet Ski hire, water skiing, deep sea fishing, diving tuition and equipment hire, tennis courts, a golf course and mountain bike hire. However the town is also truly child friendly. Specially designed parks are situated throughout the town along with mini-golf and funfairs. The beaches are safe, well kept and accessible from the main town through a lush series of parks that negates the need to cross any roads.

If you wish it is always possible to escape the madding crowd and seek serenity in any of the multitude quiet coves along the coastline, or immerse yourself in the Spanish culture that the Costa Blanca still proudly preserves as the backbone of its traditional outlook. This has stopped it from going the more commercial way of some of Spain's other popular holiday destinations, and it maintains its natural beauty and authenticity as a result. This is Spanish hospitality at its finest and most genuine, and those who visit are bound to return.

The Costa Blanca has no end of adventures, and if you need to travel further afield, it is also an easy drive to Gudalest, Benidorm, Calpe, Javea, Valencia, Alicante and Denia.
