Location & Local Information

Villa des Anges is strategically set on the Montravel road, in between the towns of Saint Emilion and Bergerac.

The closest village is Saint Méard de Gurçon (2 km), with its flower lined roads, a magnificent Gothic church and also renowned for its excellent wine producers.

Sainte Foy La Grande, a 13th century bastide town facing the Dordogne river is about 10 km away as is Montpone with its lively Wednesday market.

A visit to the world heritage site of Saint Emilion is also strongly recommended.

The whole area swarms of tourist attractions and entertaining activities including wine-tasting tours such as the famous Route des Vins de Bergerac, cruises down the Dordogne river, horse-back riding, tennis and golf.

The international airport of Bergerac is only at a 40 minutes drive, whereas that of Bordeaux can be reached in one hour.
