

Villa Faldo

Region: Amendoeira Golf Resort Sleeps: 10

Overview

The Amendoeira villas are modern and designed with a Moorish theme which reflects the history and past cultures of the Algarve. Situated on the plush and stylish Amendoeira Golf Resort, these villas are ideal for families who enjoy sporting facilities, and being close to all of the action or groups of friends looking to have fun in the sunshine. The villas offer a private retreat away from the hub of the resort, but with a resort shuttle bus on hand to get you around, you can utilise the facilities as much, or as little, as you like.

With each villa having its own private pool, you can relax on the sun loungers as much as you like, or if you prefer some company, head to the communal pool to interact with others and also enjoy the snack bar.

The large five bedroom property is set on a grand plot, offering splendid views across the plush golf course, the resort and beyond.

Situated over four levels, there are five spacious, wonderfully decorated ensuite bedrooms, four on the lower ground floor and one on the very top floor.

The large and dining room are open plan and have direct access to the sumptuous pool, the covered terrace, which is perfect to dine al fresco on, having utilised the barbecue.

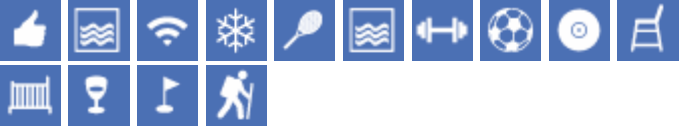

The villa is ideal for families who want a private self catering holiday, whilst being easily connected to resort facilities.
